

EMBROIDERY SALE SATURDAY

Indications point to a very heavy season on white and colored Embroideries. Saturday we open the season with a "rousing" old Embroidery Sale, making prices for this special day that will not be equaled during the whole season. Many short lengths of those beautifully fine edges and bands (for which we are famous) go in to make the sale still more interesting. The prices vary so we cannot quote prices on only two lots as follows:

One lot, values as high as Saturday, 15c
30 cents per yard - -
One lot, values up to Saturday, 10c
18 cents per yard - -

John W. Gordon returned last evening from New York City, where he has been engaged in arguing the case of the defendants in the patent infringement case of John W. Crier vs. Innes and Marr, administrator. The case came up in the United States circuit court of appeals. A decision is not expected for a week or so.

Those who attended the N. E. O. P. meeting last night were royally entertained afterwards by the committee. Tables and cards being provided, those who wished played progressive whist, the prizes going to P. M. Cutler and Mrs. Giffen, while Mrs. Cutler and Bert Cutler divided the booby prize. Refreshments, consisting of fruit and bonbons, were served.

Johann Ruscher and wife of Montpelier have sold to S. H. Mills their granite works known as the American Granite company, off Barre street in Montpelier, the price being about $7,500. Possession will be given March 1. The Ruschers expect to visit their former homes in Austria before starting in the retail business in the middle West of the United States. The purchase gives Mr. Mills a chance to enlarge.

V. C. Fuller of Burlington, representing the Vermont industrial exhibit to be held at Burlington next summer during the Champlain tercentenary celebration, is in Barre and Montpelier for a few days, getting the people of the two cities interested in the project. It is said that the granite men of Barre are discussing the advisability of making a joint exhibit of Barre granite at the exhibit. Two local men have been in Burlington this week looking into the matter.

The service last evening at the hall of the Evangelical church, 8 Merchant street, was not more largely attended than the preceding night. Notwithstanding, a fine spirit prevailed and an enjoyable and profitable meeting resulted. A feature was the playing of the organ and guitar by the evangelist, and the singing of his wife. The services are to be a little out of the ordinary, as the evangelist puts it, and he is to speak to-night on "Old Time Religion." A good meeting is assured. Services every evening except Saturday, this week and next, at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody come. Don't miss it.

Yesterday afternoon a meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church was held in the church parlors. The ladies comprising this society are making a special effort this year to aid in the church work along social as well as financial lines. To this end they assign a special subject for each meeting, and yesterday was a "mothers' afternoon." In spite of the inclement weather there was a fair attendance. Stories and items of interest concerning children were given, followed by a pleasing musical program by the children, and the serving of light refreshments. If each member of the society will make an effort to be present at these meetings and help to make welcome all ladies of the parish, much may be accomplished in a social way, and a helpful acquaintance of the needs of the church people established.

"The Mummy and the Humming Bird," which will appear at the opera house to-night, is a play for the home, and there never was a more successful piece before the public than the above. The vehicle is one which itself creates a strong interest throughout, suggesting the possibilities, as the consequences of a feminine love neglected by its mate and craving affection from whatever source it may come. In the play, Lady Lumley is neglected by "the Mummy," so styled on account of his love for his study and scientific research; and blindly turns for comfort to "the Humming Bird," Signor D'Orelli, a villainous Italian nobleman who, by a clever combination of circumstances, worked out by the ingenious Lord Lumley, is at last shown forth in all his nakedness. The parts are all in capable hands and the play with its present cast is one which is taking favorably wherever it shows. Mr. Henry W. Pemberton and Miss Adelaide French head the company.
